

IQA Excellence in Innovation and Community Engagement – proudly sponsored by Eltirus

Purpose of the Award	The award is to recognise an individual's contribution to excellence and innovation in the quarry industry, including outcomes in community engagement and consultation. The contribution can be for innovation in design, production, operations, automation, plant design, maintenance or processes as a single event or for a longer term contribution to improvement over a period of time. The innovation should show improvements in measurable outcomes. The winners will also be able to demonstrate engagement with peers, the industry and/or the community.
