

The Company

Hitachi Construction Machinery Australia (HCA) is part of the global technology and manufacturing brand Hitachi Ltd, which touches many parts of our society by providing high quality, technologically advanced solutions, to many industries worldwide.

In Australia, HCA is the largest arm of Hitachi Ltd and is an industry leader in the earthmoving equipment field. Hitachi Construction Machinery Australia (HCA) provide the construction and mining industries with high quality earthmoving machinery products, parts, service and support.

HCA is in it for the long haul.

HCA is the exclusive distributor of Hitachi and Bell products in Australia - two of the most renowned and innovative Original Equipment Manufacturer brands in the world. HCA provides comprehensive machine sales, service and parts support through 23 wholly-owned national branch network strategically located throughout Australia. HCA is also able to service customer needs 24 hours a day, 7 days a week with a dedicated 24/7 national customer support centre.

Safety

As part of our safety first priority, we focus on providing all employees with the necessary resources, training, communication, policies and procedures to complete their job safely, ensuring their return home to family and friends injury free and fit for work the next day. Our company safety motto is a reminder to our employees that we all want to 'See You Tomorrow'.

The HCA Safety Management system is monitored, maintained, reviewed and audited to comply with the certification requirements of AS/NZS ISO 45001:2018. Our quality system is monitored, maintained, reviewed and audited to comply with the certification requirements of AS/NZS ISO 9001:2015.